Dear Cousin Lizzie,

Well Lizzie, I do not think I can write much this evening as I have 2 or 3 other letters to write, and please excuse my writing as I am in a hurry.

I hope you got home alright that day, and we did not wake you sick. I think I behaved to well because I caught a terrible cold and I have got a very sore throat. That night I played out door until about 9 o'clock.

The girls are great on playing marbles. I bought some glass ones tonight and so did Mary Hoban.

Frank Furguson is here to see Jennie now. I expect Kate over here any minute now. He is trying to peak on my letter all the time.

Mamma was up to the cemetery today. She took some flowers to put on Alberts grave.

Well Lizzie, I can not write anymore. So Good By

Excuse poor writing and mistakes
