

These are notes found on a napkin

Darling Lizzie

I'm not in a funny mood today so can not think of any thing to write
Bertha Osterhof

Bertha L. Garner
"By Holland"

Remember the "Pre" at the park July 29 / 94
Mae Mulder, Spring Lake, Michigan

Do not forget the Dennison six and our walks, talks and our frolics
Your friend Mae Dimock

"Onions" our first to eat at Macatawa
Julia Brady S.L.M. July 26, 1894

Dear Lizzie,
Remember the eve we did not go to church but visited in the twilight hours.
Nellie Shoemaker ???? Summer Normal ???? July 30, 1894
Spring Lake, Michigan

Remember your friend. Kate Hines

Dear Lizzie
Remember the night you were made a sandwich of Lauretta Shuster

Elizabeth Golden
Remember the following
Hattie Wright
Mae Dimock
Ella Cooney
Maude Seymour
Jennie Lillie
and
Mary Nixon
July 29, 1894
(Remember this Sun. morning at breakfast table)

You are a country school Ma'am. I positively believe. However I hope you have improved the chance you had in the city of Holland
Edna Chappell

Amidst eternal change, men in unity of purpose and of goal, I have changed and changed and changed from M to M. From M to M. From M to J. From E to D and L.
The goal.
Good luck to her
H.D.Ern