Muskegon, Dec 7, 1889

Sister,

I write you those few lines hoping when they reach you, they will find you as they leave me at present. Are you going to school yet? I suppose you will be going next Monday.

Did Kate get home all right? She had a good time anyhow. I suppose she will be settled for a year.

I do not know how long a vacation we will have Christmas yet. I hope it will not be very long.

How is Mary Ann and all the rest? I guess I will close as news are scarce.
