There is a partial stamp in the upper left hand corner of the envelope. It looks like half of the stamp was ripped off.

Muskegon, March 6, 1889

Dear Sister,

I thought I would write you a few lines to let you know that I am well, hoping these lines will find you and all the folks the same.

Mary said you were going to attend examination. I hope you will have good luck. I have forgotten when examination was to come off in Ottawa. Although we received a copy of the Observer after Maggie died, but I have forgotten the date of examination. Examination will be here 7 of March, which is tomorrow. Three weeks more after this and I will be home.

Is John home yet? The snow is almost gone down here, but very xxx weather for making sugar.
