Dear friend

There is an excursion to Detroit the 13th. The fare is $2. for a round trip. Now Will I am going on this and would like to have you come along as I am sure you would enjoy it. the train makes good time and leaves sometime Sunday morning. we would get in Detroit about noon and would have about 7 hrs. to rubber. Write at once and let me know whether you will go or not. Joe Golden c/o G. R. Brass Co.

Let me know by return mail if you can

I believe this letter was written to my Grandfather, William Fitzpatrick.
Grandpa Will and Lizzie were married in 1897.

Lizzie's dad had a brother named Dennis Golden. Dennis had a son named Joseph.
In 1897, Joseph Golden was 21 years old and William Fitzpatrick was 23.
