the time that I last while sick and he said it was all right he would allow it. So I am very glad. I guess Rose & I will sit together after this week. She feels just as I did when I first started. Said if she was at home again she would not say anything about washing dishes. I think she will like it after a time. Rose said to tell Will that she supposed the thought he was big since he is Papa.

Well I guess Mary has written all the rest. I will bring my letter to a close hoping to hear from you soon and also that you are better. Have you sit up yet? Irene is well and sends Harold a kiss x over

P.S. Rose wants me to go home, to Tallmadge, with her Friday night. Her folks will drive after her and bring her back Sunday. Don't know whether I will go or not. Mary said I could and it would pass away the Sat. & Sun. so I would not be quite so lonesome. If I should go I wish Will and Sada would drive up to Berlin to Mass. Tell Sada I will drop her a postal Friday if I go.

Good Bye.
